1.1 INTRODUCTION TO WESGRO AND CAPE TOWN AIR ACCESS

Cape Town Air Access (CTAA) is a division of Wesgro, the official tourism, trade and investment promotion agency for Cape Town and the Western Cape in South Africa. Wesgro is a legislated Schedule 3C Public Entity, as provided for in the Western Cape Investment and Trade Promotion Agency Amendment Act, 2013. The Agency is responsible for tourism, trade and investment promotion. The Agency is governed by a Board of Directors appointed by the Executive Authority in terms of section 3 of the Act.

CTAA is the key contact point and facilitator for the development of international air services to and from Cape Town International Airport (CTIA) in South Africa. Increasing international air connectivity is a strategic imperative for the City of Cape Town and Western Cape Government as it will unlock economic potential in its fast-growing sectors and position Cape Town as a location of choice for business on the African continent.

Through CTAA, the airport, private sector, and government work together to engage with airlines and destination cities to identify and establish profitable and strategic routes. CTAA answers the call from businesses and the people of Cape Town and the Western Cape for greater international air connectivity that aligns and supports strategic growth sectors. The partners of the initiative are: Wesgro, Airports Company South Africa (ACSA), The Western Cape Government (WCG), The City of Cape Town (CoCT), Cape Town Tourism (CTT), and South African Tourism.
